

ASCONAUTO, DRIVE TO THE PRESIDENCY FOR THE PERIOD 2019-2021

AsConAuto, National Association of Automobile Dealers Associations, reconfirmed for the period 2019-2021 Fabrizio Guidi as president. Confirmed the current leadership and strengthened the leadership team that has thus risen to 12 participants. The twenty-two -formati consortia with 922 concessionari- adhering to AsConAuto are organized on a territorial basis in 83 provinces and 16 regions. The aim of the founding entrepreneurs: create a sales of original spare parts management, effective and efficient, made through a process of optimization of resources and an innovative distribution services to independent garages and body shops. Today, more than 18 years since the founding, and with the participation of more than 60 percent of the operating dealerships in Italy, the association network has secured a reputation as a protagonist of the domestic automotive industry. The distribution of original spare parts for a net value, to date, more than 5 billion euro brings a concrete proof of efficacy recognized by the market to the associative project. The reconfirmation of its associated management team for the 2019-2021 three-year period is a result that emphasizes the compactness of the team under the command of AsConAuto system, but the current turmoil in the market and the many challenges they recommended a strengthening in the group that is guide. In addition to confirming the Presidency headed by Guidi, the Assembly elected Roberto Scarabel deputy chairman and Giorgio Boiani vice president.
