

SERVICE DAY, CLOSING WITH GUIDO MEDA AND ANDREA DE ADAMICH

(ANSAméd) - ROME, NOVEMBER 10 - Guido Meda and Andrea de Adamich together on stage during the final day of the Service Day which was held in Brescia on 8 and 9 November. Anecdotes and curiosities collected by de Adamich in half a century leading the world of motorsport have animated the meeting, which culminated in the award ceremony with courses that are held in the 'International Safe Driving Center' de Adamich.

Roberto Scarabel, vice president of AsConAuto, confirmed just as the skills addressed to expert technical knowledge for safe driving is an address line AsConAuto intends to propose to its network in the future and, as a sign of openness of this line of action, He has added Andrea de Adamich during delivery of courses to 4 network ambassadors. Ben 22 sessions in the program led to the audience of specialists attended from all over Italy contributions of experts, original research and analysis of scenarios, as well as best practice examples declined in all areas of the business. Some of the issues addressed. The two days of Brescia was an opportunity to take stock of post-sale, original parts, innovative logistics, special initiatives and dedicated training. The event, born from an idea AsConAuto and organized by Quintegia dell'attersales is intended for operators: a segment of the Italian automotive industry manned by over 37,000 professionals. In Italy there are more than 35 thousand companies including repairers, body shops and tire specialists and in 7 cases out of 10 affiliates to network retrieval of technical information, training, spare parts and marketing activities. According to a survey of ICDP-International Car Distribution Program, the dimensions are small: just over 3 is the average of employees. Share on: Whatsapp Telegram I like it: I like it Loading...

[SERVICE DAY, CLOSING WITH GUIDO MEDA AND ANDREA DE ADAMICH]